WILL IT BE A NEW GOVERN-MENT?

Russis, one of the world powers, is fast making history which is anything else but a credit to her in this the most enlightened period of the world; with her great losses in the Eastern war, taken in connection with the public upheaval at home, it would seem at first glance at the situation that the reign of the autocrat is around, for it is fully realized that with like conditions existing elsewhere, the downfall follow. However, the conditions in Russia are so different from any other nation that it is more than probable long time maintain its present status. The reason for this conclusion is manifest from the fact that while the governmental departments, as we are informed, are corrupt from top to botpower that will be the means of giving approved on this ground. will be suppressed, and not only this, ernment; and besides this, it is ad- time on record. mitted that there is the most complete and well organized system of police and detective forces in the world.
